Conference venue for the Third International Ragweed Conference

Congress Centre (Centro Congressi) in Rho, placed inside an 18th Century complex surrounded by a big park and a lovely Italian garden, to keep and favour the silence.

Close to the Sanctuary of the Afflicted Virgin Mary (Santuario della Madonna Addolorata) stands the “College”. This name means a place where people “live together.” The Missionary Oblates recognize their founder in the venerable father Giorgio Maria Martinelli (1656 – 1727). The foundation of the College dates back to 1714.

The Congress Centre (Centro Congressi) in Rho is 2 kilometers far from the New Fair Center of Rho-Pero, on the way from Milan to Malpensa international airport and on an axis leading to major european destinations by road.
