

INVITATION

The Faculty of Agricultural and Food Sciences of the Széchenyi István University cordially invites you to the event of the Joint Ambrosia Action project.

International Science Conference

Language of the conference: Hungarian/English

Date: 29 May 2019 (Wednesday) 9:30 (registration from 9:00) – 15:30

Location: Diamant Hotel Szigetköz Dunakiliti (9225 Dunakiliti, Csölösztői út 1.)

The aim of the conference is to get the participants to know the scientific results of the project and to give the general public a comprehensive picture of the latest research on ragweed.

At the conference invited speakers will give lectures, but we await applications in any research topic related to ragweed for the poster section.

Every poster should be done in a one page A0 format (84.1x118.9 cm).

The posters and abstracts of the presentations will be published in the journal Magyar Gyomkutatás és Technológia (Hungarian Weed Research and Technology).

Please send the one-page abstracts according to the formal and content requirements of the journal to the following e-mail addresses by 3 May 2019, Friday, 12:00:
